The first of Fall Term's OLLI Trivia Contests took place in the Fellowship Hall of the Church of Christ, also the venue of our next two contests (October 16 and November 6 at 11:45). First place was claimed by the formidable Sand Mountain trio (Mary Burkhart, Janet Deutsch, and Bobby Donald); inches behind in second place came The Footnotes (Bill Brown, Christy Dittrick, and Tom Penton).

We play Trivia just for fun. There are no requirements. Round up a friend or two and come as a team, or just come and join a team forming on the spot. Here are the titles for the October 16 games: "1960's US TV Show Titles (Herb Shivers question writer); "Film Actresses" and "Name that Tune" and "Guess the Word" (Dwight St. John question writer). In "Guess the Word" you are given a definition ("to sing by suddenly changing from a natural voice to a falsetto and back")) and your team must supply the word being defined. Sound like fun?"
Quick Tip – Meet Other Members...Wear Your Name Badge!

OLLI at Auburn asks members to wear name badges when attending OLLI classes and events, as a security measure, and, because it just makes sense. Wearing your OLLI name badge is the perfect way to be able to meet and greet other members when you are attending classes and events at OLLI. Try approaching other members with a smile, look at their name badge, and greet them by name. Be sure you are wearing your name badge so the person can greet you right back by name! It works every time! Keep your badge in a convenient place, like your car, your bag, or your purse, so that you always have it when you come to OLLI!
